QUARTERLY WINNER - ONTARIO COUNTY

DET. JORDAN DOBIES

Dobies, who grew up in Ontario County, is a detective with the Geneva Police Department and has been with the department since 2018. He holds a bachelor's degree in wildlife science.

Q: What's your favorite part of your job?

A: The best part of the job is collaborating with members of the department and other agencies to put solid cases together.

Q: What career highlight are you most proud of?

A: My career highlight was being assigned to the Detective Bureau and getting the opportunity to work on major crimes.

Q: What do you do in your spare time?

A: I love spending my spare time with my family. We love the outdoors in New York.

Q: Since we work in the child abuse prevention field, what's one piece of advice you would give to parents to help protect their kids?

A: One piece of advice I would offer to parents is to stay vigilant and keep focused on a family-centered approach to life.

'Detective Dobies' commitment and tireless efforts in handling child abuse and child sexual abuse cases are truly outstanding. Despite being relatively new to the detective role, his skills have quickly made him an indispensable part of both the Geneva Police Department and the Multi-Disciplinary Team. The complexity of these investigations is often difficult, yet Detective Dobies navigates them with a drive and passion that sets him apart as one of the finest in his field. His dedication is not just a testament to his character, but also a beacon of hope for the victims he serves.'
